Proactively Managing Your Career

Topic: Talent Management and Professional Development (TM)

What do successful career paths look like in development shops? Is yours on track? Come hear from seasoned experts who will discuss strategies and what they learned along their own journeys. They hope you will leave with ideas about how to evaluate and attain a fulfilling and rewarding career. Their expertise includes all areas in development and they will also give feedback on the tools needed to advance such as professional development classes, networking ideas, boomerang opportunities, and LinkedIn.
